

SEEK RECEIVER FOR WELSH CIGAR STORE

Charging that the proprietor James Welch is at times of unsound mind, that his business is somewhat involved, that he is unable to meet the current expenses incurred in the ordinary course of business, appointment of a receiver is asked in superior court for the cigar store at 108 N. Michigan st., known as Jimmie's Cigar Store.

Hamilton Harris & Co., a corporation, are the petitioners and they set out that Welch is indebted to them for $2,662.14 and schedule other liabilities totalling $5,000. The assets consisting of pocket billiard tables, fixtures, and merchandise stock are listed at $7,000.

In the petition for a receiver the plaintiff sets out that James Welch is at times of unsound mind and that he has turned over to his brother George Welch authority to manage the store. The brother resides in Grand Rapids, Mich. It is further contended that the brother is unable to manage the business in South Bend but the concern is run by clerks.

The store was formerly known as "Junny and Gout" but several months ago "Gout" Anderson retired from business and sold his interest to his partner.

Nationally Known Writer Dies at Chicago Home

By International News Service:
CHICAGO, March 19.—Bert Les-ton Taylor, known as B. L. T., nationally famous humorist, died at 3:30 a. m. Saturday morning at his home after an illness of two weeks with bronchial pneumonia. Taylor's column, the "The Line 'O Type," which he inaugurated in the Chicago Tribune in 1911, became one of the best known humorous columns in the American newspaper field.

Besides this column, Taylor, under the signature of "B. L. T.," wrote several books of humorous verse, and prose.

"B. L. T." was born in Gresham, Mass., in 1866 and was educated at the college of the city of New York.
Before coming to the Chicago Tribune he was editor of newspapers in Greenville, N. H., and Duluth, Minn.

In 1885 he married Miss Emma Bonner of Providence, R. I. She and two daughters survive him.

CHAMBERLAIN MAY SUCCEED TO POST

British Chancellor of the Exchequer Mentioned to Succeed Bonar Law.

By United Press:
LONDON, March 19.—Austin Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, was being mentioned in political circles Saturday the probable successor of Andrew Bonar Law, who has resigned as spokesman for the coalition government. His designation for that position was said to be contingent only upon his wishes.

Should Chamberlain accept, it was believed that either Sir Robert Hoare, president of the board of trade, or Sir Worthington Evans, minister without portfolio, would be made chancellor. Stanley Baldwin, under-secretary of the treasury, would succeed whichever of these two was named as Chamberlain's successor.

Efforts to induce Earl Derby to accept leadership of the unionist party apparently have been unsuccessful.

Eruptions of the Skin Cause Torturous Itching

If you are afflicted with any form of skin disorder, you are well acquainted with the burning, burning itching that these diseases produce.
So many people continue to suffer from eczema, tetter, and other forms of skin disease because they do not seek the source of their suffering, and no disease can be successfully combated unless attacked at its source.

Skin diseases are caused by an impurity or disorder in the blood, and there is no real and genuine relief within your reach until such impurities are removed.
This explains why disappointment comes from the use of lotions, salves, ointments and other local remedies.

S.S.S. has given great satisfaction in the treatment of these disorders, because it is such a thoroughly satisfactory blood purifier. It cleanses the blood of all impurities, and thus counteracts the effects of the germs that attack the skin.

Begin taking S.S.S. today, and if you will write a complete history of your case, our medical adviser will give you expert advice without
